Makes Addresses in Each House Am. 8 & Bet. pt. After He Calls on Gov. Hughes.

Special to The Evening World.
ALBANY, N. Y., June 5.-William J. Bryan, accompanied by Lieutenant-Governor Chanler and Bird S. Coler. speeches before both branches of the Cons-Legislature. He first called on Gov. Hughes, and during a ten minutes' conversation talked on many subjects except politics.

Bryan was foully applauded, as he stepped onto the rostrum of the Libut-Governor, who introduced him as a man who had been honored in many lands. The Nebraskan spoke on the virtues of a Republican form of governor, the lands of a Republican form of government. Grady and Raines then introduced him to all the Senators, who filed by in front of the clerk's desk. In the Assembly Bryan's reception was tumulfuous. The Democrats cheered and yelled. Bryan talked for nearly half an hour. He said a Legis. nearly half an hour. He said a Legishature was a necessary evil, rather than an unalloyed good. It was the duty of any representative whose conscience couldn't harmonize with that of his constituents, to resign his job, declared Bryan. The faults of Government were not in the people, but in those elected to represent them and who beirayed their trust.

Bryan gave the newspapermen a taix on the economic and political tendencies of the time. The average man, he said, was beginning to assert himself and the financier was less arrosent. The recent investigations had the financier was less arrosent. fature was a necessary evil, rather than made it impossible for the financier to

of the building. Alton B. Parker was arguing a case before the Court of Appeals in another parts of the build-The two dld not meet.

It's Plain Common Sense to Buy Muslin Underwear NOW

This is the last WHITE SALE on the old basis of prices, until there comes a change in the linen and cotton markets. And the Muslin Undergarments we have prepared at the OLD LOW PRICES are prettier and more varied than ever. But lots are comparatively small, and they are the last we can get, Therefore, buy early and as largely as you can afford to-you won't regret it. All the garments are made in the thorough Wanamaker way. The lower-priced kinds are in the Sub-Station Store—and the special offerings comprise Women's and Children's Underwear, Babies' Dresses, Corsets, Shirt-waists, and kindred articles-too many for details. Come.

Sweeping Reductions on All UNTRIMMED MILLINERY

Readjustment of our stock of Untrimmed Millinery in its new location in the Sub-Station Store precipitates a thorough clean-up at sharply reduced prices-that are in almost every case, except in the higher-priced hats-LESS THAN HALF of former prices.

Every possible style, shape, straw and color is included—compris-ing the newest and favorite styles of the season. There are chip, Tuscan, Milan and Neapolitan straws. Japanese braid, and practically every other straw that is used.

New prices are 50c, 75c, $1, up to $2.50 Former prices were $1.50 to $5

Also a quantity of Children's Trimmed Hats with ribbons, quills, pompons, etc., at 50c to $5, that were $1.25 to $7.50.

It's a wonderful chance, but best choosing will be early. On sale

Girls' and Young Women's Suits Splendid Values at $10 and $13.50

The $10 Suits ought to sell at $20. The $13.50 Suits ought to sell at $23.50.

That they don't is the fault of the season-and your good fortune. For they make one of the best of this very remarkable series of offerings of Girls' Suits that we have presented in the Sub-Station Store.

Made in the very popular light striped, checked and fancy worsteds, in tropical weights—just right for Summer wear—by a manufacturer whose standard is very high. Handsomely finished; mostly in Vassar jacket models, but a few in Pony and Eton styles. All have full plaited skirts. Sizes 14 to 18 years. A most exceptional opportunity. On sale tomorrow,

Embroidery Medallions, 5c Each

Regular values are 10c to 25c. It took a purchase of a thousand dozens to secure the low price.

Women want these pretty medallions by the dozen for Summer shirt-waists and dresses. They are oblong motifs, many white, some touched with olack, some linen color. There are combinations of lace and embroidery, and some panels 18 inches long—wonderful variety of designs, all at the same price, 5c each.

Nainsook Edgings, 12 c Yard

Sample pieces, else they would readily command 18e a yard.

Two thousand yards in all—fine work, on cloth in keeping with the embroidery. Interesting, if you have underwear to trim.
